GOD CALLS US TO WORSHIP HIM AS OUR GOD

Psalm 9:11-20

A PRAYER OF INVOCATION

THE CONFESSION OF OUR FAITH IN GOD

Q. Which is the ninth commandment?

A. The ninth commandment is, Thou shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Q. What are the duties required in the ninth commandment?

A. The duties required in the ninth commandment are the preserving and promoting of truth between man and man and the good name of our neighbor as well as our own. Appearing and standing for the truth and from the heart, sincerely, freely, clearly and fully speaking the truth and only the truth in matters of judgment and justice and in all other things whatsoever. A charitable esteem of our neighbors loving, desiring and rejoicing in their good name and sorrowing for and covering of their infirmities. Freely acknowledging of their gifts and graces, defending their innocency and a ready receiving of a good report and unwillingness to admit of an evil report concerning them. Discouraging tale-bearers, flatterers and slanderers. Love and care of our own good name and defending it when need requireth. Keeping of lawful promises, studying and practicing of whatsoever things are true, honest, lovely and of good report.

THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Great rescuing God, we are weak sinners who find it easy to move toward people who make us feel good about ourselves, comfortable and important. We continually show favoritism in our hearts and often with our words and actions. We hate others sometimes for no good reason and we do evil to them damaging their reputations with gossip and rejoicing when bad things happen to them. We know we should love even those who do evil to us but our sinful hearts rise up and we seek justice by doing them damage in return. Some of us have hurt others by lashing out while others exact vengeance by cold, deadly withdrawal. All of us have hated, gossiped and slandered, rehearsing the downfall of our enemies with relish. Father, forgive us. Deliver us from ourselves. We are weary of our sinful depravity.

Holy Spirit, remind us often that all our sin is paid for—past, present and future. May this truth give us courage to see our hearts clearly, to confess our sin readily, to repent quickly and to try hard to love those who sin against us. Restrain our tongues and bodies and keep us from trying to deliver ourselves. Give us patience to be imperfect and to allow others to be imperfect as we wait for your work in your time. Give us faith to trust that you are the holy Judge who will carry out perfect vengeance and perfect forgiveness according to your perfect will. Thank you that the day will come when we will see our glorious Redeemer face to face and be like him forever. Amen.

A SILENT MOMENT FOR CONFESSING PERSONAL SINS

GOD’S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

For Christ has entered not into holy places made with hands which are copies of the true things but into heaven itself now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.
