

GOD CALLS US TO WORSHIP HIM AS OUR GOD

Psalm 96: 7-13

A HYMN OF PRAISE

Hymn 212 – Come, Thou Almighty King

A PRAYER OF INVOCATION

THE CONFESSION OF OUR FAITH IN GOD

Westminster Larger Catechism 145 & 149

Q. What are the sins forbidden in the ninth commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the ninth commandment are, all prejudicing the truth and the good name of our neighbors as well as our own especially in public judicature. Giving false evidence, suborning false witnesses, wittingly appearing and pleading for an evil cause, outfacing and overbearing the truth. Passing unjust sentence, calling evil good and good evil. Rewarding the wicked according to the work of the righteous and the righteous according to the work of the wicked. Forgery, concealing the truth, undue silence in a just cause and holding our peace when iniquity calleth for either a reproof from ourselves or complaint to others. Speaking the truth unseasonably or maliciously to a wrong end or perverting it to a wrong meaning or in doubtful or equivocal expressions to the prejudice of the truth or justice. Speaking untruth, lying, slandering, backbiting, detracting, talebearing, whispering, scoffing, reviling, rash, harsh and partial censuring. Misconstructing intentions, words and actions. Flattering, vainglorious boasting, thinking or speaking too highly or too meanly of ourselves or others. Denying the gifts and graces of God. Aggravating smaller faults, hiding, excusing or extenuating of sins when called to a free confession. Unnecessary discovering of infirmities, raising false rumors, receiving and countenancing evil reports and stopping our ears against just defense. Evil suspicion, envying or grieving at the deserved credit of any. Endeavoring or desiring to impair it, rejoicing in their disgrace and infamy. Scornful contempt, fond admiration, breach of lawful promises, neglecting such things as are of good report and practicing or not avoiding ourselves or not hindering what we can in others, such things as procure an ill name.

Q. Is any man able perfectly to keep the commandments of God?

A. No man is able, either of himself or by any grace received in this life, perfectly to keep the commandments of God but doth daily break them in thought, word, and deed.

A HYMN OF RESPONSE

Hymn 455 – I Need Thee, Precious Jesus

THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Giver of all graces, you are full of grace and truth and all your mercies end in our delight. Since the dawn of time when Satan first tempted with a lie and mankind readily chose to believe it, we have been people full of blindness and deception. In the garden you made a promise that your goodness, kindness and love would triumph over our rebellion and you have kept that promise. You have never lied to us and you have been faithful to your Word though we have been unfaithful deceivers. Father, thank you for your grace, mercy and truth. Spirit of Truth, illuminate us and transform us we pray. Convict us of our specific sins and help us to repent for we cannot do this without your help. May the pure truth of our Father's unconditional love for liars like us, humble us deeply. Let the truth of his joyful determination to save us exalt our hearts and fill us with a gleeful gratitude that lays hold of our hearts and tongues, filling them with thanksgiving and praise. We thank you that you are our advocate, our helper and our closest friend and that you will never leave us. Grow us in truth until the day we stand before our precious Savior and become like him forever. In his name we pray, amen.
