Q. What do we pray for in the fourth petition?

A. In the fourth petition which is give us this day our daily bread, acknowledging that in Adam and by our own sin we have forfeited our right to all the outward blessings of this life and deserve to be wholly deprived of them by God and to have them cursed to us in the use of them and that neither they of themselves are able to sustain us nor we to merit or by our own industry to procure them but prone to desire, get and use them unlawfully. We pray for ourselves and others that both they and we, waiting upon the providence of God from day to day in the use of lawful means, may of his free gift and as to his fatherly wisdom shall seem best, enjoy a competent portion of them and have the same continued and blessed unto us in our holy and comfortable use of them and contentment in them and be kept from all things that are contrary to our temporal support and comfort.

Q. What is the chief end of man?

A. Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy him forever.

A HYMN OF RESPONSE

Hymn 534 – Fill Thou My Life, O Lord My God

THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Giver of all graces, you are full of grace and truth and all your mercies end in our delight. Since the dawn of time when Satan first tempted with a lie and mankind readily chose to believe it, we have been people full of blindness and deception. In the garden you made a promise that your goodness, kindness and love would triumph over our rebellion and you have kept that promise. You have never lied to us and you have been faithful to your Word though we have been unfaithful deceivers. Father, thank you for your grace, mercy and truth. Spirit of Truth, illuminate us and transform us, we pray. Convict us of our specific sins and help us to repent, for we cannot do this without your help. May the pure truth of our Father's unconditional love for liars like us humble us deeply. Let the truth of his joyful determination to save us exalt our hearts and fill us with a gleeful gratitude that lays hold of our hearts and tongues, filling them with thanksgiving and praise. We thank you that you are our advocate, our helper and our closest friend and that you will never leave us. Grow us in truth until the day we stand before our precious Savior and become like him forever. In his name we pray, amen.
