THE CONFESSION OF OUR FAITH IN GOD

Westminster Larger Catechism 141

Q. What are the duties required in the eighth commandment?

A. The duties required in the eighth commandment are truth, faithfulness and justice in contracts and commerce between man and man rendering to every one his due, restitution of goods unlawfully detained from the right owners thereof, giving and lending freely, according to our abilities and the necessities of others. Moderation of our judgments, wills and affections concerning worldly goods, a provident care and study to get, keep, use and dispose these things which are necessary and convenient for the sustentation of our nature and suitable to our condition. A lawful calling and diligence in it, frugality, avoiding unnecessary lawsuits and suretiship or other like engagements and an endeavor by all just and lawful means to procure, preserve and further the wealth and outward estate of others as well as our own.

A HYMN OF RESPONSE

Hymn 475 – Who Trusts in God, a Strong Abode

THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Patient and loving Father, you have been faithful to us in all things, keeping your promises to those who belong to you throughout all generations. But Lord we are not faithful to you. We have often struck you with our wayward wills when our souls and bodies should embrace you with joy, gratitude and love. Each new day exposes new corruptions in our hearts that we failed to see before and each day we add to the long list of our offenses against you. Not only do we sin against your law which we cannot keep, but we violate your love repeatedly, disobeying you even though we have drunk deeply from the fountain of your grace and mercy. We struggle to be faithful friends, spouses, siblings, parents and children. We confess that our selfishness invades all of our relationships. Father forgive us. Holy Spirit, show us more of Christ and change us into his likeness. Make us steadfast in our love for him and faithful in obedience. Let our weakness and indwelling sin humble us and fashion in our hearts a desperate desire for the help and hope that is found in him alone. May your deep love and mercy cause us to turn to you, to love you, to trust you and to grow in faithfulness to you. Touch our sinful lips and fill them with praises for you, for you are gracious and you alone can make our spirits right and true. Amen.

A SILENT MOMENT FOR CONFESSING PERSONAL SINS

GOD'S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

Behold, I will gather them from all the countries to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation. I will bring them back to this place and I will make them dwell in safety. And they shall be my people and I will be their God. I will give them one heart and one way that they may fear me forever for their own good and the good of their children after them. I will make with them an everlasting covenant that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts that they may not turn from me. I will rejoice in doing them good and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul. Jeremiah 32:37–41

REMINDER: Pick up your shoe box today and help us reach as many children as possible. Every shoe box gift is an opportunity for children to hear the Gospel. Many children are in need around the world and many of them never receive a gift. Samaritan's Purse ministry through Operation Christmas Child wants as many as possible to know of God's gift of salvation. A follow up program teaches children about Christ's love.
