THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

All seeing God, we confess our sinful response to the trials and discomforts of our lives. While in the depths of woe, we have resented our need for you and rarely lifted our eyes to you, the only one who can bring us true help. Instead we have consistently directed our gaze to earthly things that falsely promise escape and comfort. We have been charmed by vain things, the approval of others, the possessions that we have or want, the allure of misused sexuality and the enormous drive to worship our bodies, our abilities and our desires above all things. In our willful blindness to the love and comfort you offer us, we are found completely guilty in your holy sight. Yet as we continually stray from your love and your law, you look upon our helpless state and lead us to the cross. We ask you to do this now Father. Loving God, soften our hearts to delight in your love for us. Change us into sons and daughters who are so enraptured with the story of the gospel that we run to our beautiful Savior as we experience suffering in our lives. Help us to trust you as you call us into journeys that we do not want to take, knowing that you will never leave us or forsake us. Give us strength to believe that from your own fullness you will repay all that you take from us. Lift our eyes afresh to the cross from whence our help comes, the place where our lives were saved by Jesus' death. In his name we come, amen.

SILENT MOMENT FOR CONFESSING PERSONAL SINS

GOD'S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

But with you there is forgiveness that you may be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul waits and in his word I hope. My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.
