

Psalm 107—The Steadfast Love of the Lord

- Psalm 107 is a historical psalm which reflects on Israel’s history yet presents timeless spiritual truth – God’s unfailing, steadfast love.

Where He Finds Us

God finds us caught up in trouble and distressed by it. We have before us four scenarios of how this happens. He finds us:

- I. As lost wanderers (vv. 4-9)
- II. As helpless captives (vv. 10-16)
- III. As self-destructive fools (17-22)
- IV. As self-confident seafarers (23-32)

How He Deals with Us

God answers his people’s call for help with his steadfast love. Here are four examples of how he does it:

- I. He shows the way and leads us on it.
- II. He sets us free from captivity
- III. He rescues us from foolishness
- IV. He calms the storm around us

How We Respond to Him

Why is it wise (v. 43) to consider the things written in the psalm? So that we would know how to respond to God’s steadfast love. The psalmist gives us four responses:

- I. He teaches us what to expect
- II. He calls us to thank and praise the Lord
- III. He calls us to be witnesses of his love.
- IV. He points us to Christ.

Psalm 107—The Steadfast Love of the Lord

- Psalm 107 is a historical psalm which reflects on Israel’s history yet presents timeless spiritual truth – God’s unfailing, steadfast love.

Where He Finds Us

God finds us caught up in trouble and distressed by it. We have before us four scenarios of how this happens. He finds us:

- V. As lost wanderers (vv. 4-9)
- VI. As helpless captives (vv. 10-16)
- VII. As self-destructive fools (17-22)
- VIII. As self-confident seafarers (23-32)

How He Deals with Us

God answers his people’s call for help with his steadfast love. Here are four examples of how he does it:

- V. He shows the way and leads us on it.
- VI. He sets us free from captivity
- VII. He rescues us from foolishness
- VIII. He calms the storm around us

How We Respond to Him

Why is it wise (v. 43) to consider the things written in the psalm? So that we would know how to respond to God’s steadfast love. The psalmist gives us four responses:

- IX. He teaches us what to expect
- X. He calls us to thank and praise the Lord
- XI. He calls us to be witnesses of his love.
- XII. He points us to Christ.