THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Father God, you have brought us into your kingdom but we run from you daily and worship other gods. We love food, sex, our jobs, titles, bodies, good works, possessions, family, and friends more than we love you. We crave approval, power, respect, and comfort and are willing to sin frequently to get them. In loving these, we tell you that we hate you. By being devoted to our idols, we despise you and have become enslaved to creation rather than our Creator. We live in bondage to hard taskmasters that leave us feeling empty, alone, and full of shame. Forgive us, Lord, for falling with the first Adam. Tempted, tried and often failing, we look now to you for strength. Thank you Jesus that your yoke is easy and your burden light. You have taken on the great burden of these sins that we cannot bear. You were tempted by Satan with earthly comfort, glory, and authority, but you trusted and obeyed your Father instead. You endured poverty, shame and a criminal's death on our behalf. Though we crucified you because of our hatred and spite, you did not despise us. You lovingly saved us, standing in our place as the second Adam. We are now bound to your grace, our Savior. Free us from all that rules our hearts beside you. Deliver us from slavery to our besetting sins by constantly reminding us of your excellent love for us. Replace our likeness to the first Adam with your likeness, Son of God. Help us to despise the false security, comfort, and pleasure our sins offer, so that we might be devoted to you, in whom we find delight, fulfillment, and true rest. Amen.

SILENT MOMENT FOR CONFESSING PERSONAL SINS

GOD'S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

Therefore as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.
