THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Redeeming God we thank you for making us capable of knowing you and for awakening our souls to desire you. Help us to approach you with reverence and awe not with presumption or cringing fear but with holy boldness and joyful expectation. We confess to you that we find it difficult to trust you and we fear you in all the wrong ways. You have punished your precious Son in our place and given us spiritual riches beyond imagination, yet we often live as though you love us and bless us when we are good and as though you are angry and punish us when we sin. Father, help us to believe that there is no wrath left for us because you have poured it all out on Christ in our place. Holy Spirit remind us often of our weakness until we learn to run to you quickly for grace in our times of need. Humble us and show us the foolishness of our best thoughts so that we will trust you instead of ourselves. Give us strong desires to love and obey you and strength to walk in growing obedience. Replace our guilty fear with joyful, awestruck wonder until the good works to which you have called us begin to flow from transformed hearts. Amen.

GOD'S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

The Lord is my shepherd. I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil. My cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalm 23
