THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS TO GOD

Lord God Almighty, you graciously and generously fill our lives with many wonderful things. We confess today that we are prone to love your good gifts far more than we love you. We covet and long for things that you haven't given us or we are filled with fearful anxiety if we think that you might take away the things or people that we have come to love so much. Father, thank you for your deep and endless mercy to rebels like us. Holy Spirit help us to see our many idols and incline our stubborn hearts to repent. Open our blind eyes to see the Lamb of God lifted up for us so that his redeeming blood could cleanse us from all our self-worship. Draw our eyes to the great throne room in heaven where he dwells in radiant glory, crowned with honor and interceding for those united to him. Thank you for the certain hope that one day we will join with the thousands upon thousands of the redeemed, falling down before the throne and saying together, worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive blessing and honor and glory forever. Amen.

SILENT MOMENT FOR CONFESSING PERSONAL SINS

GOD'S ASSURANCE THAT WE ARE PARDONED

Do not be deceived my beloved brothers. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. If you then who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! James 1:16–18; Luke 11:13
